This I found in a Christian bookstore where I picked up a book titled "Competent to Counsel" by Jay E. Adams, which opened my eyes to the possibility that I could with confidence counsel myself as well as help others. This led me in June of 1979 to the Biblical Counseling Foundation located then in Arlington, Virginia, where I spent three it produces a chasm between counselor and counselee and makes subsequent counsel ineffective.7 Hardens hearts to God. The misuse of Scripture not only creates division between people, it also separates people from God. In contemporary Christian culture, we have a tendency to use the Scriptures as a technique to achieve peace and harmony. We look to

The uses of Scripture in Counseling

A. Everyone gives counsel. Every time a person gives advice to someone else he is counseling. There is no biblical position or office of "counselor". Counseling is a part of every position the New Testament Christian holds. The major issue is not who is counseling but from what authority did the person doing the counsel get his information.
