The elite warriors of the ancient Roman Empire were called the Triarii. When these battle-hardened soldiers engaged the enemy, each man knew to do one thing: Take one square yard of ground, clear it, advance; take one square yard of ground, clear it, advance. The Triarii never retreated; they held their ground until victory or death.

Prayer is a most essential part of the Christian armour. Without it, all the other parts become useless. The Word of God becomes alive as we appropriate the promises of God through faith. We have this faith as we draw near to God through prayer and His Word. Prevailing prayer moves the hand of God.
