The law of obligations is one branch of private law under the civil law legal system and so-called "mixed" legal systems. It is the body of rules that organizes and regulates the rights and duties arising between individuals. The specific rights and duties are referred to as obligations, and this area of law deals with their creation, effects and extinction.

Insurance is a complicated topic that is not well understood by insurance consumers. The underwriting cycle is used to explain why it is complicated, both from a contractual and a compliance perspective. The article cycles through the entire underwriting process, from when an applicant requests coverage to the renewal of a policy, as well as discussing adverse underwriting decisions.
